

Friday, April 19: No School

Wednesday, April 24: Beauty and the Beast play at North High School

Students under age 8 and under 4'9" must bring a booster seat to school*

Thursday, April 25: Living Museum homework and presentation due

please email me your child's presentation (typed)*

May 1 and 2: Living Museum 8:40-9:30 a.m. (all are welcome at any time during the 50 minutes period)

I will send the date your child will present next week.*

Students should come to school on their presentation day dressed as their character, and bring clothes for the day as needed*

Monday is Earth Day! We will have many Earth Day related reading and writing activities throughout the week.

Writing: Today we learned about similes and created some about our decorative eggs. Have your child show you the book they made!

Math: Unit 7 tests came home today

Social Studies: We continue to work on the history unit. This week we compared old artifacts with new ones.

Have a wonderful weekend with your families.
